7.1.9 Human Values and Professional Ethics:

Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

Response:

The Institute has been committed to educating students as constitutionally aware citizens sensitized to their fundamental rights and duties. Various activities are organised by departments for students as well as societies.

National Unity day is celebrated which helps youth of the country to be aware of and provides an opportunity to everyone to maintain the integral strength of the nation.

Institute celebrates National voter's day to make awareness about social responsibility in the people at State and District level. Savidhan Sanman Saptah to promote study and education about the Indian Constitution.

Institute aware the students about constitution provides citizen the values of human dignity, equality, Social justice, Human rights and freedom, Rule of law, equity and respect and superiority of constitution in the national life. The oath of saving constitutional values was taken. To make inferences and predictions about behaviour concerning a voting decision, certain factors such as gender, race, culture or religion must be considered. Furthermore, a more theoretical approach can be taken when viewing electoral behaviour; such as viewing wealth and region in which a voter lives which will impact upon their electoral choices. Moreover, key public influences include the role of emotions, political socialization, tolerance of diversity of political views and the media. In this academic year we run our practice with the programme that is; First Voter; jointly organize by Political Science department NSS Unit of Institute. The Institute run the awareness programme regarding voting process and importance. Proactive and participatory information campaigns focus on qualification of contestants, how to cast votes, election timings and processes of voting, actions against election malpractices.

List of various activities conducted in the Institute for inculcating values for being responsible citizens as reflected in the Constitution of India are given below

- 1) Independence Day -2021
