Report on Skill Development Training (Interdisciplinary)

“Employability Enhancement & Youth Livelihood Program” was organised as per the suggestion of Peer Team Report on Institutional Assessment and Re-accreditation of the college. Students Progression to job market needs strong attention. The said Training was conducted with association with Mahindra Pride Classroom Project of Naandi Foundation, Pune. The duration of the course was three months from Monday 18th December, 2018 to Monday 18th February, 2019.

There were two batches of 59 and 72 students. Batch –I included 59 students from Third Year undergraduate from Science faculty whereas Batch-II consists of 72 students from 63 students from Second Year Post Graduation from Arts, Science, Commerce & Computer Science faculty and 9 students from Computer Science Third year.

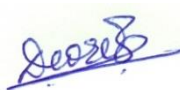

The training includes training through Group Discussion, Various activities, Projects, Skit, Extempore, etc. The two trainers Ms. Ruby Padhi and Ms. Sonali Pathak were allotted by Mahindra Pride Classroom for these two batches. They also conducted mock interviews for the participants individually, in their last sessions of the training. The activities were given on the basis of Team work such as India, where the students participated in groups as one team one theme of state in India. Students enjoyed the training session and actively completed the training.

Out of 17 departments in our college, total 131 students from 8 departments' viz. Commerce, Hindi, Computer Science, Chemistry, Economics, Marathi, English and Sociology were participated in training and completed the Training. The Detail list was attached to the report.

The Skill Development Cell of the College is thankful to our college Principal Dr. J. D. Sonkhaskar, IQAC Coordinator Dr. D. N. Pawar, Ms. Ruby Padhi (Trainer), Ms. Sonali Pathak (Trainer), all department Heads, Committee Members viz. Ms. M. P. Nathe, Ms. S.S. Kendale, Non-teaching staff Mr. Dhananjay Kadam, Mr. Vilas Hire, all my colleagues and my students for their positive and kind cooperation to complete training successfully.
